

CSCLeaders

CSCLeaders
for Students

What if the world's greatest challenges were in your hands?

A third of the world's population are from the Commonwealth. If you are a student from a Commonwealth country or studying in one, this is your chance to step forward and play a part in tackling the biggest issues facing business, governments and society today.

Do you want to develop your leadership skills and help influence the future of the Commonwealth? Then these four days are the launch pad you need.

"We cannot wait for great visions from great people, because they are in short supply. We must light our own small fires in the darkness."

Charles Handy

"One of the most intense things I've done but also the most satisfying."

Maria Natasha Tjahjadi, Participant, Singapore 2013

CSCLeaders for Students will help you:

- Build your CV: add a valuable experience that employers are looking for
- Develop leadership skills to help you in university and in your career
- Make a difference to the future of the Commonwealth and the world
- Develop Cultural Intelligence – the ability to thrive in multiple cultures.

CSCLeaders for Students gives you real and practical experiences, broadening your horizons and challenging you to adapt and thrive in diverse situations. It equips you with the tools you need to lead change, now and in the future.

When and where?

23 - 26 June 2014
London

How much?

FREE

How do I apply?

cscleaders.org/students

Contributing sponsor:

Host University Partner:

Delivered by:

cscleaders.org/students

commonpurpose

HRH The Duke of Edinburgh's
Commonwealth Study Conferences

CSCLeaders is the renewal of the HRH the Duke of Edinburgh Commonwealth Study Conference for the 21st Century. Today, it maintains its historic and prestigious roots. But it's changed a lot too. It's a practical and innovative think tank and it embraces its greatest asset: the Commonwealth Student voice.

Who is it for?

We are looking for students from, or studying in, the Commonwealth.

This is for you if:

- You want to make a difference in the world
- You want your voice and your ideas to influence what is happening today
- You are currently a student

"I don't think I have ever had such a long succession of invaluable moments. This conference was very well run and has had a huge impact on me. Thank you."

Lucille Danks,
Participant, Oxford 2012

"Thank you so much for providing the opportunity to gather with inspiring colleagues for the ultimate learning experience."

Qing Qing Miao, Participant, Boston 2014

What happens?

The challenge for 2014/15 is:
"What makes a city smart?"

As a participant, you will explore a major world challenge from a local perspective. You will meet visionary thinkers from global businesses, governments and international not-for-profit organisations to help you understand the challenge and find creative ideas to help you solve it. Best of all, you won't be alone; you will build your connections and make new friends - and the solutions and knowledge you build will be passed to other CSCLeaders events held in Commonwealth cities around the world.

"Explosive, enlightening, exhausting and challenging. Intrinsic value added!"

Nkosi Mamba, Participant,
Johannesburg 2012

Who could you meet?

During the four days you will direct your own learning, speaking to leaders from and visiting organisations such as:

- BP
- Foreign and Commonwealth Office
- HSBC
- Goldman Sachs
- Oxfam
- DLA Piper
- BBC
- Rolls Royce
- International Red Cross
- PwC
- London Fire Brigade
- Santander

More about CSCLeaders

CSCLeaders connects the leaders of tomorrow with the leaders of today. The series of student programmes in Commonwealth cities will take place in the lead up to a two part programme for some of the world's most exceptional senior leaders. They will explore the same annual challenge as you, but from a global perspective.

Find out more at csclleaders.org